U.S. Probation Officer Action: Kenneth C. Dennis was confronted by the probation officer and admitted to using marijuana one month prior to his sentencing date. Mr. Dennis advised this officer that he does not use marijuana on a regular basis and that he was experimenting. The offender was informed that he was prohibited from associating with people involved in criminal activity. Mr. Dennis advised that he does not believe that he would benefit from drug treatment as he denies having a problem. He was instructed to begin submitting to drug testing pursuant to the color-code system. Mr. Dennis was informed that a future positive drug test could be used as grounds for revocation. It is recommended that the Court take no punitive action since the offender's marijuana use occurred before his probation period began.
